

Madison County Executive Leadership

The Madison County Business League & Foundation (MCBL&F) and the Madison County Economic Development Authority (MCEDA) are proud to announce that applications are now accepted through November 30, 2022, for the class of 2023. This program is offered for individuals who work with companies that are MCBL&F members in good standing.

MCEL welcomes applicants who are corporate-level leaders, executives emerging leaders, and community leaders who are interested in learning more in-dept knowledge about opportunities in Madison County and the challenges that impact our county such as infrastructure, education, healthcare, law enforcement, government affairs and quality of life.

Members of the Madison County Executive Leadership class will be a part of prestigious network of business leaders that will play a role in shaping the future of our County. Class members will travel around the County learning about the impact of infrastructure, education, healthcare, public policy, and quality of life on our economy; therefore, gaining valuable knowledge and experience. They will meet influential business leaders and elected officials enabling them to develop a strong network of contacts.

The goal of the program is to develop and maintain a network committed to improving the quality of life in our county. Ideal candidates are those who are enthusiastic about the success of their community and state.

MCEL is an annual program of the Madison County Business League and Foundation and MCEDA. Class participants are selected by a diverse group of anonymous judges who review each qualifying applicant. Final decisions will be announced mid-December.

Deadline to submit the application is November 30, 2022.
